

Home

- Welcome and Introduction
- The History of Jewish Women and Girls in the "White Slave" Trade
- Victims Today
- Reflections of a Modern Sex Trafficking Victim
- The Jewish Tradition and Sex Trafficking
- Achieving Protection and Justice for Victims
- If Not Now, When?
- Evening Panel: Trafficking in Israel and the US and the Call to Action
- Anti-Trafficking Resources
- Media Coverage
- Sitemap

Home

Materials for conference on April 22, 2013 at the UJA-Federation of NY:

Presented by UJA-Federation of New York's Task Force on Family Violence

Organized with:

- AVODAH: The Jewish Service Corps
- Equality Now
- FEGS Health and Human Services
- Footsteps
- Jewish Child Care Association of New York (JCCA)
- The Jewish Community Center in Manhattan; Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty
- Mount Sinai Sexual Assault and Violence Intervention Program (SAVI)
- National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW)
- New York Board of Rabbis
- New York Legal Assistance Group (NYLAG)
- New York State Anti-Trafficking Coalition
- Project Keshet
- Sanctuary for Families
- T'ruah: The Rabbinic Call for Human Rights
- Uri L'Tzedek

With the generous support of two anonymous donors; Greenberg Traurig, LLP; Jewish Women's Foundation of New York; U.S. Fund for UNICEF

#wewereslaves
wewereslaves@gmail.com

Registration for daytime: <http://www.ujafedny.org/event/view/we-were-slaves/>

Registration for evening: <http://www.ujafedny.org/event/view/we-were-slaves-2/>

Daytime Program_We Were Slaves_April 22, 2013.pdf (853k)	Ilana Herr, Apr 19, 2013, 1:55 PM	v.1
Evening Program_We Were Slaves_April 22, 2013.pdf (760k)	Ilana Herr, Apr 19, 2013, 4:07 PM	v.1	